

We Sell "The American Model Builder"

"Ives Trains and Toys"

"Parker Games"

"Madame Hendren Character Dolls"

A Big Assortment of Slippers for Gift Giving

Slippers are always acceptable and our showing will aid you in picking out the kinds desired. Felt and leather slippers in many dainty styles and colors.

Women's Slippers---$1.00 and $1.50
Children's Slippers---60c to $1.40
Men's Slippers---$1.50 and up.

Number 824 Wednesday Surprise Sale
December 6th

A Pre-Christmas Offering of Splendid Serving Trays at 98c EA.

Here are excellent gift suggestions --- Serving Trays in the new oblong shape, of various woods---glass bottom with wood underlay to match frame, wood handles---a big value for next Wednesday at this surprise price

98c Each

On sale at 8:30.
See window display.

Salem's Big Christmas Store Neckwear

Complete satisfaction is assured if you select your gift articles at Meyers. We have prepared especially for the gift-seeker and can make your shopping easy by placing such large, choice Christmas stocks at your command

A Sale of Embroidered Japanese Kimonos $1.98 Men

Here's a sale that should appeal to all gift-seekers. Dainty Kimonos, embroidered in shaded effects and very pretty designs. Garment is fashioned after a regular Japanese model and may be had in light or delft blue, coral, gold, green, lavender,

These Would Make Excellent Gifts . . . Sale Price $1.98

New Brushed Wool Sweaters

Just in---and they're unusually stylish --- pretty belted models in Nell rose, white, Old rose, light green, blue, etc., priced $5.95 to $14.65

New Rubberized Silk Rain Hats at $1.50

These are the last word in Ladies' and Misses' Rain Hats---choice of yellow, blue, brown, green, red or purple.

A Sale of Fine Silk Petticoats at $5.69

Don't overlook this big event---fine Silk Petticoats in plain and two tone effects---new flounce styles---choice of old rose, green, blue, gold, black, white, purple, pink, etc., your choice $5.69.

for Men

Meyers has always been known for its splendid assortments of Xmas Neckwear for Men and Boys. New patterns, newest shapes and the biggest variety to choose from. Priced at 50c, 65c and $1.00

Bath Robes for Men

A bathrobe will delight and comfort him and he will surely appreciate it. Select from our showing and get complete satisfaction. A number of good styles and grades to choose from. Prices $4.95, $6.50, $7.50, $9.50, $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00

New Showing of Women's Neckwear--Scarfs--Ribbon Novelties and Xmas Handkerchiefs

The Art Embroidery Section will help you greatly

See the large showing of sweet grass and Bamboo Sewing Baskets and other novelties in this department.

Second Floor

Salem's Big Toyland The Children's Delight

Bright eyed youngsters dance with delight when they see this big Toy Emporium on our second floor. The Xmas Spirit abounds in this big section---Bring the Children and let them enjoy the displays.

Toys, Dolls, Doll Furniture, Toy Stoves, Games, Building Blocks, Tricycles, Hand Cars, Rocking Horses, American Model Builders, Bart's Konstrukt, etc.

Second Floor

Santa Claus' Headquarters

Meyers

The Xmas Store

All Around Town

COMING EVENTS

Dec. 3--Elk's Memorial service, opera house, 2:30 p. m.
Dec. 4--City Election.
Dec. 4--Annual Election of Cherrians.
Dec. 5--Musicians' Association annual dance at Arnoy.
Dec. 7--The Winning of Barbara Worth, Opera House.
Dec. 12-16--Third Annual Marion County Corn Show in Derby building.

Dr. Mendelsohn, specialist, fits glasses correctly. U. S. Bank Bldg.

Dance at Aumsville Saturday night, Dec. 2

F. R. Morton left this morning over the Oregon Electric for St. Paul, Minn.; where he will make his home.

Evangelical Bazaar Dec. 2, Masonic Temple.

The Yeomen have leased a hall in the Masonic temple and will hereafter hold their meetings Wednesday nights. The Masons have arranged the fifth floor of the Masonic temple for lodge purposes. The Yeomen heretofore have been meeting in the Moose building.

Your gift with our imprint needs no further recommendation. Set your watch by our street clock, Gardner & Keene, Salem's most reliable jewellers.

Evangelical Bazaar Dec. 2, Masonic Temple.

Members of the Commercial club are invited to go to Eugene and find out what the live wires of the city are doing in the flax business. The invitation comes through the flax committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce which will go to Eugene next Wednesday to investigate flax conditions.

Dr. Stone's Drug Store for trusses, Dec. 2

Dance at Aumsville Saturday night, Dec. 2

Miss Mary Schultz and Miss Nannette Bloom will give a concert tonight at Postville, Iowa, where relatives of Miss Schultz live. After a few days' rest at Postville, they will continue on their way to Chicago to take up the study of music. Miss Schultz on the violin and Miss Bloom on the piano.

Wanted--All Capital Journals dated October 31, 1916. Call Cir. Mgr., phone 51.

Orchardists will have an opportunity of not only hearing a lecture on peach leaf curl, but will be given a practical demonstration of methods of spraying at the Kaiser school house Tuesday, December 12. Prof. W. S. Brown, of the Oregon Agricultural college, will deliver the address and give the practical demonstration.

Dr. F. H. Thompson of 416 Bank of Commerce bldg., specializes in Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Dr. Stone makes no charge for consultation, examination or prescription.

A Victrola grand opera concert will be given at the public library auditorium next Friday evening, December 8. "Rigoletto" has been selected as the opera for the evening. Mrs. Anna Rodgers Fish will give a reading of the opera. The records have been secured through the courtesy of Miss Myrtle Knowland, who represents the Sonora machine here.

Calico 50c per yard Saturday morning 9:00 to 11:00 a. m. Compton's 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c store. Dec. 2

A motion to advance the High street paving cases was filed this morning with the supreme court for the city by B. W. May, city attorney. The filing of the motion was because one of the attorneys declined to stipulate for advancement. The case is one to test the validity of the High street assessments between Hill and Bush streets.

S. H. Snyder, rental agent, successor to L. Bechtel & Co. If you have a vacant house list it with me. If you want to rent a house come and see me, 341 State St. Phone 452.

Dr. R. Meuric Roberts, osteopathic physician, 309 Masonic Bldg. Phone 409

Buy your Xmas gifts at the Episcopal bazaar next Wed.

Five fatal accidents were reported to the State Industrial Accident commission during the past week, according to the weekly statement of the commission. The fatalities were B. Legum, Warren, logging; J. W. Erickson, Portland, trespasser; George Eddy, Pendleton, machine shop; J. P. Clark, Klamath Falls, dairy; and W. W. Kinnicut, Jacksonville, mining. There was a total of 276 accidents in all.

Home made candies at the Episcopal bazaar, next Wed. and Thurs.

The last call of the Journal before election. Vote for J. A. Mills for city recorder. (Paid adv.)

To show cause why rates should not be advanced from 10 to 25 per cent, a committee from the Commercial club will be asked to appear before the Interstate Commerce commission at its session to be held in Portland Monday, December 11. The committee to attend this session, as appointed by the Commercial club consists of F. G. Decker, chairman; Frank Schmidt, H. S. Gile, C. K. Spaulding, Robert Paulus, W. G. Allen and E. C. Quinn.

Bring the children to see the Monster Duck at Episcopal bazaar Dec. 6 and 7.

Many dainty pieces of fancy work will be shown at the Episcopal bazaar next Wed.

This morning the state engineer granted to Arthur S. Reede & Sons, of Drewsey, Oregon, a permit to construct a reservoir for the storage of 3,800 acre feet of water which is to be used for the irrigation of 1,500 acres of land. This is an enlargement of a reservoir heretofore built and it now has a capacity of 4,100 acre feet. The estimated cost is $15,500, which includes the construction of six miles of canal and a 30 foot dam. The reservoir will cover 424 acres.

Bazaar and cooked food sale at Central Cong'l church, Tuesday Dec. 5. Fancy work; ice cream; lunch counter. Visit the Mystic booth. Free program in the evening.

Dr. R. T. McIntire, physician and surgeon, 214 Masonic bldg. Phone 440.

The Moose goat is now in town and taking part in the campaign for a membership of 1,000 before the first of the year. Dictator Benjamin Brick announces that a big meeting will be held at Moose at the Moose lodge next Thursday evening, when every member of the lodge will be given an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the goat. Special state organizer Von Eyle is in the city and with the goat will stay here until the membership campaign is closed.

Fancy baskets for all purposes--C. S. Hamilton.

Dr. L. G. Altman, homeopathic physician, 296 N. Liberty. Phone 147.

Ben McClelland, who with Company M on the border the past summer, and crew near Corvallis the past few weeks, who has been working with a surveying will leave for Tucson, Arizona, Tuesday where he will go into the mines. He is a son of James McClelland, Salem councilman.

Help make 13 the luck number in the Mill-Race and vote 13 X Earl Race for city recorder. (Paid adv.)

Pictures framed at money saving prices. Holiday framing a specialty--C. S. Hamilton Furniture Store.

Miss Helen Phillips, a graduate of the Salem high school, who is now taking special work in Reed college at Portland in preparation for the teaching of physical culture, has been in Salem several days. She has been a teacher in the Marion county schools and is well known in Salem. She expects to return to her work at Reed next week.

Ladies of the First Congregational church will give a 3:30 noon lunch with the annual bazaar or Wednesday, Dec. 6.

Bring in your pictures for Christmas framing--C. S. Hamilton, furniture store.

Just as flour went down five cents a sack, comes the discouraging news that gasoline climbed the ladder of prices today with an advance of one cent a gallon, making the Salem retail price 21 cents a gallon. The only consolation is that it didn't happen in time to interfere with the annual Thanksgiving of a few days ago.

Opal Ranges, the best range for the money. Trade in your old range for the Opal--C. S. Hamilton furniture store.

A few used ranges at very low prices--C. S. Hamilton.

Grover Powers, a member of the local Elk lodge, is reported to be ill at his home on North Commercial street.

O. K. Dewitt is in Salem for a few days. At present he is salesman for the Overland and other cars with headquarters in Albany.

See the fine quarter sawed oak dining tables, $17.50 special--C. S. Hamilton.

The Southern Pacific will sell round trip tickets one and one-third fare for the round trip to all California points. Tickets will be good December 21 to 28 with return limit of 15 days.

Something to always be thankful for--that the tobaccoist could make a cigar as good as the La Corona.

After a visit of eight months in northern Idaho, Gustave Keuscher is home and glad to get into a climate that is milder than northern Idaho where it snows almost every month in the year. He reports business conditions good in that part of the world.

It is time to be thinking about that dining table for your wife's Christmas present. Our prices are right and our goods are new, clean stock--C. S. Hamilton.

At the annual election of officers of Salem Lodge, No. 4, A. F. & A. M., held last evening at the Masonic temple, the following officers were elected: Worshipful Master, Fred A. McIntyre; senior warden, A. F. Marcus; junior warden, Jerry P. King; secretary, Stanley Culver; senior deacon, Walter Winslow.

Elks Attention! Members of B. P. O. E. are requested to meet at Odd Fellows hall a few minutes before 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the time set for the memorial services at Grand opera house--Memorial Committee.

If any good citizen expects to be in Washington about the 25th of next January and at the same time would like to be a delegate and meet with the big fellows of Wall street, apply to Mayor Harley O. White. This morning he received a letter from the National Security league of Washington announcing it had the honor to invite the mayor of Salem to appoint three delegates to the congress of constructive patriotism, to be held at the New Willard hotel, Washington, January 25, 26 and 27. The purpose of the meeting is a consideration of the basic conditions of national security and the development of an efficient national spirit. The delegates will have the privilege of paying their own hotel and railway expenses.

WANTED

Household Furniture. Woodry the Auctioneer will pay highest cash price for same. Phone 511.

PIANO TUNING
First-class work. All kinds of repairing. All work guaranteed. Twenty-five years' experience. Leave orders at Schaffer Drug Store, phone 107. Residence phone 1465.
J. E. ROCKETT,
915 Highland Avenue.

VALID PATENTS

A. M. Wilson, 25 years experience. Legally, mechanically and commercially trained to protect your invention. Send for booklet, FREE SEARCH. 311 Victor Bldg., Washington, D. C. dec22

SALEM TAXI CO.
PHONE 700
DAY AND NIGHT
CARS OF ANY KIND
ANY PLACE
ANY TIME

GASOLINE LAMPS
600 Candle Power $6.50
Greatest Lamp value ever offered
Look at stand or lamp and lamp
YOU WANT THIS LIGHT
Complete with pump, shade, mantle, torch
SEE MY LAMPS FIRST
Gasoline lamps, lanterns, iron, mantles, etc.
C. M. LOCKWOOD
218 N. Commercial Street Salem, Oregon

PERSONALS

C. Martin, of Lavesley, was in Salem yesterday.
Mrs. D. E. Pendergras, of Chemawa, is in the city.
Miss Lottie McAfee is in the city from Hayesville.
S. T. Burchett, of Rickreall, was in the city yesterday.
K. S. Thurston was in the city Friday from Jefferson.
Miss Geneva Treat, of Falls City, was a Salem visitor Friday.
Mrs. Fred Theroux was in the city Friday from Oregon City.
James M. Wilson, of Dallas, is transacting business in the city.
S. S. Aiken, of Prospect, Oregon, is visiting with friends in Salem.
C. K. Spaulding registered at the Imperial hotel, Portland, yesterday.
A. L. Applewhite, a school teacher of Willamina, is visiting in the city.
F. H. Snodgrass, of Eugene, is visiting a few days with E. B. Ringo.
C. S. Miller was in Portland yesterday registered at the Portland hotel.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hetrick were Salem visitors yesterday from Shelburn.
John T. Hobbitt, editor of the Silverton Appeal, was in the city today on business.
Labor Commissioner Hoff was a passenger this morning for Portland on the Oregon Electric.
Mrs. Ella Watt returned to Portland this morning after spending the Thanksgiving season here.
Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hair, of Eugene, are guests at the home of Dr. M. C. Findley over Sunday.
Miss Emma Waldorf returned this morning from spending Thanksgiving with her parents at Sheridan.
Miss Corn Gilbert, stenographer for Urnch & Macy, left this evening for a short visit with her sister at Woodburn.
William Sykes, a barber, who has lived in the city, left this morning for Elyton, Minn., buying a one-way ticket.
George H. Pritchard, for two years Salem correspondent of the Oregonian, left yesterday for Portland to accept a position on the Oregonian staff.

A Christmas Surprise for Mother's Eyes

A pair of glasses for Mother through which, without changing them, she can see to read and sew, and to look at distant objects! How she would appreciate that! Can't you just see her happy smile?

My experience is your security. Every case receives the same careful attention, no matter what you pay for the service. I do not experiment on your eyes. I use no drugs or drops in making examinations as they are dangerous. Satisfaction is guaranteed in every respect.

Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn
Rooms 209-210-211 U. S. National Bank Building.

Make Somebody's Christmas A Lasting One

Give the sort of present that makes the joy of Christmas last for gift that is worth while.

KRYPTOK GLASSES

Our Kryptok Christmas Certificate Plan makes it easy to give a gift that is worth while.

MISS A. McCULLOCH, Optometrist

208-209 Hubbard Building Phone 109